JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of TEN (10) MONTHS

This term consists of ten (10) months on Count One of the Two-Count Second Superseding Indictment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall perform 100 hours of community service, as directed by the Probation Officer; and
3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $10,000 pursuant to 18 USC 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid to each payee listed on the attachment to this judgment. Each payee shall receive a payment equal to their percentage of the total loss amount unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, as directed by the Court or the United States Attorney, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of $300 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, March 2, 2005. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at: United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

USA vs. Johnny WilkesDocket No.: CR04-108(B)-SVW

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a Special Assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be designated to a facility in the Southern California area.

The Court grants the governments request to dismiss the underlying Indictment.

Bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

☐ This is a direct commitment to the Bureau of Prisons, and the Court has NO OBJECTION should the Bureau of Prisons designate defendant to a Community Corrections Center.
